

Anglo-German Law Journal

Call for Papers

The Anglo-German Law Journal is looking for authors for its 2024 edition!

The Anglo-German Law Journal is published by the Anglo-German Law Society e.V., which aims to facilitate the communication between UK and German legal scholars and law students. As a central part of this goal, the AGLJ intends to intensify and enhance the exchange between common and civil law across Europe.

Topics

The academic articles (max. 6000 words) should focus on topics regarding UK and German law from a comparative angle. We also invite submissions dealing with current developments of EU law as well as case notes.

Find our past issues at <https://aglawsoc.org/aglj/> and at HeinOnline.

Language

Articles may be submitted in English or German. This offers a unique opportunity of communication and cultural exchange.

Why become an author?

As an Anglo-German law author, you are offered the opportunity to make your opinion heard. The journal also gives you the opportunity to publish an article on your Bachelor, LLM/Master or PhD thesis. Thus, you get the chance to make your work known to a wide audience. You will also be awarded 30€ upon successful publication.

Quality management

Your articles will be subject to a peer review to maintain a high quality of contributions for the journal.

Publication

The journal will be available in print and online. Print versions are sent to university libraries in the UK and Germany.

The next volume will be published in autumn 2024.

You can find more information here

...you can submit your article via this link

Submission Deadline is the 31st July 2024

If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to contact us at aglj@aglawsoc.org!

Please submit your article by uploading it (in both PDF and Word format) via this link:
<https://www.manuscriptlink.com/journals/aglj>